Letter from the Pastor

Dear Parish Family,

I hope that you and your loved ones enjoyed a blessed Christmas. Today we celebrate the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. The Christmas season, while short in duration, is a great opportunity to reconnect with family and friends. This holy season also draws our attention to the Holy Family of Nazareth.

The Gospel of Luke (2:41-52) recounts the finding of the child Jesus in the Temple by Joseph and Mary. Our Blessed Lord states, "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" After this, Jesus went with them to Nazareth, "and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart."

Obedience to God and a prayerful spirit. These qualities are so essential for the life of the Christian. As we begin a new year, I pray that you and your families, loved ones and friends will come to know and experience the peace of the Holy Family of Nazareth. May we ponder the things of God and be obedient to his commandments. In doing so, we will be a source of peace to others.

God bless you.

Fr. Dan Redmond

Legacy Giving

We appreciate the thoughtfulness of parishioners who have left bequests to the parish. These gifts help us to build a solid foundation for future generations.

Please contact St. Mary Parish, Fr. Dan Redmond at 440-285-7051 for further information.

MEN - Please note that we will NOT have Bible Study on Monday December 31st. While you celebrate the New Year - be sure to stay safe and give thanks to God!

We look forward to seeing you for Bible Study on Monday January 14!

Prayer Shawl meetings are directly after the noon Mass in the Community Room on Sunday, January 6, 2019.

Please help yourself to the Blessed shawls located in the Community Room and complete an entry in our registry if you wish us to pray for the recipient of the shawl (s). Yarn donations and additional knitters/crocheters/quilters are welcomed.

Pro-Life Prayer: Heavenly Father, you have made the womb of each woman a very special place. Help us hold fast to the sanctity of this first home of humanity, remembering the wonderful mystery, that God inhabited the womb of a young woman and came forth as the savior and deliverer of the world. We ask this in the Name of the one who came forth, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Volunteer Judges Needed

The Junior High is looking for eager volunteers to come spend some time judging Science Fair projects on Saturday, January 26th from 9am
