Letter from the Pastor

Dear Parish Family,

“Master, I want to see.” These words were spoken by Bartimaeus, a blind man. He was asking Jesus to give him sight. He had been crying out for Jesus to have pity on him despite the rebukes he received from those around him. He persevered and Jesus told him, “Go your way; your faith has saved you.” Immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus “on the way.”

Jesus is the Way, the Truth and the Life. When we remain on the right path of Christian discipleship, we too can see more clearly through the eyes of faith. We see in much greater detail our own need for God’s forgiveness and healing. We see how futile it is to close our eyes to injustice and the suffering of others. We more clearly see the hand of God at work when we earnestly seek Him.

Bartimaeus cried out “all the more” when told to be quiet by those around him. May we never cease asking God for the grace to be ever faithful to Him.

God bless you.

Fr. Dan Redmond

Memorial Mass: The 7:00 p.m. Mass on Friday, November 2, will be a Memorial Mass honoring all the deceased of the parish from the preceding year. Their names are inscribed in the Book of the Dead, which will be displayed in a place of honor in the Gathering Space throughout
